TENDER IS THE NIGHT

20th Century-Fox has captured the complex world of a group of American pleasure-seekers in Europe during the turbulent Twenties in bringing to the screen F. Scott Fitzgerald's classic novel, "Tender is the Night." Jennifer Jones, Jason Robards, Jr., Joan Fontaine and Tom Ewell star in the CinemaScope-DeLuxe Color drama, opening Tues, July 3 at the GALAX THEATRE, which features Jill St. John, Cesare Danova and Paul Lukas in supporting roles.

Concerned with Fitzgerald's "lost generation"---a group of people searching for happiness by drowning their troubles in liquor, love and unfulfilled dreams---"Tender" explores the tragic love affair between psychiatrist Dick Diver, a man forced to neglect his work because of the unsatiated desires of the woman he married, and his wife and former patient, the beautiful Nicloe.

Director Henry King took his cameras to the French Riviera, Rome, Paris and Switzerland, in order to tell his story against the haunting yet gaudy background in which the characters attempt to find some meaning in their wasted lives.

Academy Award-winner Jennifer Jones essays the role of Nicole, who confuses love with passion, while Broadway stage star Jason Robards, Jr. portrays the distraught Diver.

Two film favorites, Joan Fontaine and Tom Ewell, also have starring roles as Miss Fontaine is cast as a spoiled, extremely wealthy "woman of the world". Ewell plays Abe North, a successful song writer, who escapes reality by drinking. Lovely Jill St. John plays a popular screen siren of the day who falls in love with Diver.
