some scout hats which will be given to them later. The troop gave their heart-felt thanks to these two people for their interest and help.

The next scout meeting will be held Saturday, June 30, at Marguder & O'Brien Real Estate Office. All scouts who have their uniforms are asked to wear them.

BAILEY'S PARTICIPATE IN PROGRAMS

A Baptist Associational Sunday School mass meeting will be held at the Wells Grove Church on Sunday, July 1st, at 2:30 p.m. The theme of the program will be "Missions in the Sunday School," and Rev. Clinton Bailey of Highlands will deliver the message. Following this program, there will be a panel discussion on "Evangelism in Sunday School." Mrs. Bailey will participate in this discussion.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Bannerman of Wilmington, N. C. will arrive Tuesday to visit Mrs. L. W. Seabrook.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shurtleff and daughters Joey and Judy of Clearwater, Fla. will arrive next week to spend the remainder of the summer at their home in the Big Bear Pen section.

Dr. and Mrs. David Seitlin and children of Coral Gables, Fla. spent several days in Dr. Victor C. Mulberg's cottage here.

EPISCOPAL NEWS

The parish is deeply grateful to the Staff of the Daily Vacation Church School, which has been in session each morning this week from 9 until 11:00, concluding on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lorenz, Mrs. Irving Gumbel, Mrs. John T. Hall, and the Misses Margery Pierson and Peggy O'Conner have been conducting a most successful School for some twenty Pre-School youngsters, who have enjoyed and profited immensely from the experience.

A potluck Supper will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, July 2, in the Fellowship Hall. Do plan to attend, calling Mrs. Kleinpeter at 5000 or Mrs. Niblack at 5480 as to what you might best bring. Mr. David Ling of Waynesville will be the after-dinner speaker.

Through the great courtesy of Potts Market, the parking facilities of the Market are available to churchgoers on Sunday mornings. The congregation is reminded that during the summer, the Sunday services are held at 8, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. There is always more room in the church at the 9:30 service than at the 11 o'clock service.

Please remember the annual Re-Sale, which will be held in early October. Articles for this sale may be brought at any time to the office of Magruder & O'Brien, or will be picked up at your convenience if you make your request known.

BOY SCOUTS MEET

Boy Scout Troop No. 207 met with Scout Master Ellison Magruder last Friday, and plans were made for the Charter Presentation meeting, which will be held Tuesday night, July 3, at Hotel Edwards.

Plans were also made for a camping trip in the middle of July. Mr. George N. Moore gave the Scouts some very badly needed camping equipment, including a three-man pup tent, sleeping bags, one knap sack, canteens, and cooking utensils.

Mrs. Fred Gould also gave the boys
