served as best man. The ushers were John Norton, brother of the bride, and Michael McClain, brother of the groom.

Miss Louise Wansley of Carnesville, Ga. was maid of honor. Mrs. Glenn Schuler was organist, and Mrs. Tommy Ginn of Tallulah Falls, Ga., gave the vocal selections.

Given in marriage by her brother, Edwin Norton, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of chantilly lace over white satin. Her veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Hoke Duncan, of Dalton, Ga., John Merritt of Cumming, Ga., Philip Orsini of Aiken, S. C., and Mrs. R. Burnette and two daughters of Atlanta, Ga.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church.

After a short wedding trip, the couple plan to reside in Fairbanks, Alaska.

BY LOVE POSSESSED

The book which was hailed by critics as a major literary achievement and zoomed to the top of the best-seller lists, has been made into a motion picture calculated to stir up an equally controversial storm of reaction. "By Love Possessed," starring Lana Turner, Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., Jason Robards, Jr., and Barbara Bel Geddes, opens in color Thursday, July 12 at the GALAX THEATRE.

The theme of this story is love. Love viewed in all its aspects, from filial to fraternal, connubial to concupiscent. Threaded into this there is the story of a staid and respectable lawyer whose safe and stolid world is threatened by a series of events that probe the heart of his private and professional existence. As Majorie Penrose, Lana Turner, one of the screen's most glamorous and popular personalities, plays the passionate woman who is torn between love for her husband and his best friend. As the husband, Jason Robards, Jr. brings to the screen all of the emotional voltage that electrified Broadway audiences with his work in "The Iceman Cometh" and others. Zimbalist plays Arthur Winters, Robard's law partner and the screen husband of Barbara Bel Geddes, who, as Clarissa, calls her marriage a business merger rather than a love affair.

Others prominently cast in the film are George Hamilton, Susan Kohner, and veteran actor Thomas Mitchell in a role that may well earn him another Oscar. John Sturges directed and Walter Mirisch produced the screenplay which was penned by Academy Award winner John Dennis from the prize-winning novel, By Love Possessed.
