A HAPPY MEMORY...

In Dr. Pierce Harris' column in the Atlanta Journal, he gave an interesting account of his stay in Highlands while he and Bishop Arthur Moore were here on the Annual Preaching Mission at the Highlands Methodist Church. He and Bishop Moore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bird at their lovely home on the Country Club grounds. The following excerpts are from

APPEAR ON TELEVISION

Mr. Bob DuPree, Mrs. Ted Wilcox, and Mr. Morton Lewis appeared on Monty DuPuy's television program, "Telescope" Tuesday afternoon in Greenville, S. C. in behalf of the Highlands Community Theatre.

Monty first introduced Mrs. Wilcox, then Mr. Lewis from New York, and Mr. DuPree, a Charter Member of the Theatre. Mr. DuPree, upon being asked to say a few words about the Theatre, explained that it is one of the cultural activities in Highlands, and that it provided excellent training for over 100 young people each season. Mrs. Wilcox added

TEA ROOM OPENS

For a "bit" of old England, with all the elegance and traditional style, stop in the Wedgewood Room at Hotel Edwards and visit with Mrs. Dick Rawls. She will serve you tea (three kinds), delicious scones, "out-of-this-world" fruit bars (all home baked), and fresh homemade preserves.

Many beautiful examples of 15th and 16th century china are on display, and tea is served on delicately colored Spode and Bone China, all a private collection which Mrs. Rawls obtained while living in England. On each table there is a vase
