in G Minor Saturday evening. Both evening concerts are at 8:15 and Sunday afternoon at 3:30. The week-end has been designated Governor's Week-end and will attract many political and civic leaders.

A special Sunday morning worship service at 11 a.m. will mark a premiere of M. T. Cousins' Choral Symphony No. 1. Entitled "Moses," it will be done with a full symphony orchestra and has three movements: Exile, depicting the plight of the Hebrews in Egypt and their escape; Sinai, giving of the Ten Commandments; and Nebo, Moses viewing the Promised Land. Cousins is with Brevard College.

Orchestral numbers during the week-end include: Friday evening - Overture to "Oberdon," by Von Weber, the Brevard Music Center Symphony, James Christian Pfohl conducting; Saturday evening - Handel's "Water Music Suite," Debussy's "Prelude in the Afternoon of a Faun," and Richard Strauss' "Death and Transfiguration," Philharmonia Symphony of the Advanced Division, Dr. Pfohl conducting; Sunday afternoon - "Three Japanese Dances," by Bernard Rogers, and Symphony No. 5 in E Minor, "The New World" by Dvorak, Transylvania Symphony with Donald Johanos, conductor of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, conducting.
