"THE KING AND I"

One of the all time musical stage hits, Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The King and I," has been adapted to the screen by 20th Century-Fox with Yul Brynner and Deborah Kerr in the title roles. The CinemaScope-DeLuxe Color musical delight brings to life all the magical enchantment of the exotic East, its people, customs, and majestic way of living. Based on Margaret Landon's popular book, Anna and the King of Siam, the elaborate production opens Tuesday, July 24 at the GALAX THEATRE.

Deborah Kerr stars as the beautiful Anna, who tries to teach the stubborn Monarch of Siam the ways of the Western World, while Yul Brynner won an Academy Award for his portrayal of the King who cannot understand how a man can survive with only one wife. Rita Moreno appears as the lovely slave girl "Tuptim," who defies tradition and falls in love with Carlos Rivas.

Highlighting the Darryl F. Zanuck presentation is the inspiring music of Richard Rodgers and the memorable lyrics of the late Oscar Hammerstein II, which includes such unforgettable songs as "I Whistle A Happy Tune," "Getting to Know You," "The March of the Siamese Children," "Hello Young Lovers," and "We Kiss In A Shadow." Probably the most outstanding single sequence is the performance of the Siamese-style ballet, "The Small House of Uncle Thomas," created by and staged by the famed choreographer, Jerome Robbins.

A project that took two years to create, "The King and I," on the screen, is certainly a milestone in entertainment.
