

TOWN MEETING HELD

At a meeting held Monday night the Town of Highlands adopted an official budget for the 1962-1963 fiscal year. Upon the third reading a $163,906 budget was adopted as sufficient to meet the Town's needs.

The Board voted to give money to the Highlands Community Hospital, Highlands Chamber of Commerce, Hudson Library, and Highlands Memorial Park for the amount allocated for the fiscal year, which is as follows: Hospital and Chamber of Commerce $500 each; Library and Cemetery $250 each.

The Town purchased a utility body from the Murphy Body Distributors, Inc. for the pick-up truck recently bought, and a power unit for pumps at Rattlesnake and Houston Stations to be used as extra motors. The bid from Western North Carolina Paving Company for paving of the Town streets was accepted.

NEW CHURCH ENTRANCE TO BE BUILT

Plans were announced last Sunday morning for the construction of a new walkway and entrance into the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church. The walkway will connect a new parking area with the sanctuary. "We have recognized for several years the need of some means of entering our church without the necessity of climbing or descending stairs," said Rev. McCall. "We know that many of our senior members and friends, as well as many who warned against climbs because of medical reasons, will welcome this improvement."

The walkway is to be concrete as it

TO APPEAR ON TELEVISION

Friends of Margaret and Martha Wood, twin daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Vernon Wood now of Huntersville, N. C., may hear them sing sometime during the Bob Poole program Sunday, July 22. The program is on channel 4 from Greenville and begins at 7:30 a.m.

extends from the new parking lot to the outside of the church building. At that point it will connect with a section made of wood which will lead to a door to be cut in the narthex. "It will soon be possible to drive into our new parking lot and then walk all the way into the sanctuary without climbing or going down steps," said Rev. McCall. (Con'd on page 13)

ROTARY NEWS

Rev. James Thurman, pastor of the Highlands Methodist Church and Mr. Bill Lyons, manager of Silver Slip Lodge were installed as new members of Highlands Rotary Club by President Ellison Magruder Tuesday evening.

The program for the night was a recording, which was a personal greeting and brief discussion of the 1962-1963 year's Rotary program, from the new Rotary International President Natish C. Laharry of India. The theme of the recording was "Kindle the Spark Within," and related to "the power that lights the path to Service.
