"X-15" the suspense drama opening Saturday, July 21, at the Galax Theatre features actual exciting footage of the world's first pilot-controlled space plane, with famed test pilots Joe Walker and Major Bob White at the controls. The movie was filmed, in Panavision and Technicolor at Edwards Air Force Base.

"THE LITTLE FOXES" OPENS

"The Little Foxes" opened the summer season at the Highlands Community Theatre last night, with Virginia Wilcox recreating the ever fascinating Regina Giddens. Mrs. Wilcox, who is known for her fine performances at the theatre during past summers, led the cast in a vital interpretation of Lillian Hellman's tense drama. The prosperous, despotic Hubbard family is seen caught in the midst of a conflict caused by their rising ambition to amass a fortune by erecting a cotton mill.

Led by the possessive, scheming Ben, as portrayed by Morton Lewis, the little foxes advance-----Tom Crumpler as the cruel and arrogant Oscar and Ben's dupe, Leo, played by John David Richardson. Beverly Matthews plays the lonely intimidated Birdie Hubbard and Laura Dorsey the wistful Alexandra, Regina's daughter. Horace, Regina's ailing husband presents Robert DuPree, and the visiting Yankee, Mr. Marshall, is played by Phil Engler.
