WALT DISNEY'S "BON VOYAGE"
HAS BEEN SELECTED BY THE NATIONAL
SCREEN COUNCIL MEMBERS AS THE
BEST JUNE RELEASE THAT IS GOOD
ENTERTAINMENT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY.

"BON VOYAGE"

Moviegoers who like their screenfare light and breezy and loaded with laughs have a real entertainment treat in store for them when Walt Disney's rollicking new Technicolor romantic-comedy, "Bon Voyage!", which plays at the GALAX THEATRE on Saturday and Sunday, July 28-29.

Based on the delightful Marrijane and Joseph Hayes best-seller, this story of a typical American family's misadventures on their "dream vacation" tops even Disney's recent comedy smashes, "The Absent Minded Professor" and "The Parent Trap" for sheer laughter and fun.

A glittering array of talent comprises the cast, headed by Fred MacMurry and Jane Wyman, two of Hollywood's most accomplished performers, co-starring for the first time on the screen. As the attractive American couple, Harry and Katie Willard, who take their three off-springs on a whirlwind European jaunt, Fred and Jane have endowed their roles with all the human qualities everyone expects of a pair of average parents. Some of the problems they encounter along the way shouldn't happen to a tourist!

As the romantic-minded daughter, Amy, and her playboy heartthrob, Nick O'Mara, Disney has re-teamed Deborah Walley and Michael Callan, the two talented young stars of the recent screen hit, "Gidget Goes Hawaiian."

Versatile Tommy Kirk creates the role of the older teenage son, Elliott, who finds the French mam'selles more exciting than all the sights of gay Paree, while Kevin Corcoran is the mischief-making younger son, Skipper, age 12.

Veteran star of stage and screen, Jessie Royce Landis, plays the flamboyant Comtesse. European favorite Ivan Desny is seen at the suave, handsome gigolo, Roudolph.
