was held in the dining room. A four tiered wedding cake, punch, ice cream, and finger sandwiches were served. Mrs. Chastain presided at the punch bowl, and Bonnie Cheek kept the Bride's Book. Those attending were Miss Diana Carpenter, of Hendersonville, N. C., Miss Georgetta Penland, of Highlands and West Palm Beach, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Robert White, Doris Ann McConnell, Novia Talley, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Chastain.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Sanford, Fla. where Mr. Hancock is stationed with the U. S. Navy. He will sail July 26th on the U. S. Forrestal for a seven month cruise at sea. Mrs. Hancock will return to Lee's Inn where she is employed.

ILLUSTRATOR VISITS

Miss Vee Guthrie, illustrator of children's books, is here for the week. She gave the latest book she has illustrated, "The Story of Little-Big," by Ernestine Cobern Beyer, to the Hudson o'clock service.

Mr. Harrington, his wife, and daughter will be the guests of Rev. and Mrs. McCall over the week end.

SAVE WATER!!

The Town has requested that everyone be as conservative as possible with the use of water while the dry spell continues. It will take some time for the water supply to "Catch up."
