BREVARD CONCERTS JULY 27-29

With representatives from dozens of Music Clubs in the audience, next week-end's concert schedule at the Brevard Music Center will highlight National Federation of the Music Club award winners.

Friday evening's soloist will be 13-year old Joan Weiner, winner of the 1962 Federation's Stillman Kelly Scholarship Award of $1,000. The 9th grader from Lake Bancroft, Va., will play Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1, B Flat Minor.

On Saturday evening, Tiberius Klausner, 1961 Federation Young Artists Award winner, will be the soloist. The 30-year old Rumanian who fled Communism in 1948 is concertmaster of the Kansas City Philharmonic. He will play Mozart's Violin Concerto No. 4, D Major. (CON'T ON PAGE 18)

ARRIVALS AT BIOLOGICAL STATION

Mr. Roy Shake, Abilene Christian College, has arrived at the Highlands Biological Station to work with Dr. C. Leland Rodgers in a plant survey of Bear Camp Creek gorge.

Dr. Royal Suttkus and a graduate student, Bill Mason, of Tulane University, were in residence at the Station last week. Dr. Suttkus is the major professor of Mr. John Ramsey who is making a survey of the fish of the escarpment gorges.

A field group from Ohio State University registered at the Station last week. Members were: Steve Tilley, David Demis, and John Jenkinson. This group was collecting salamanders.

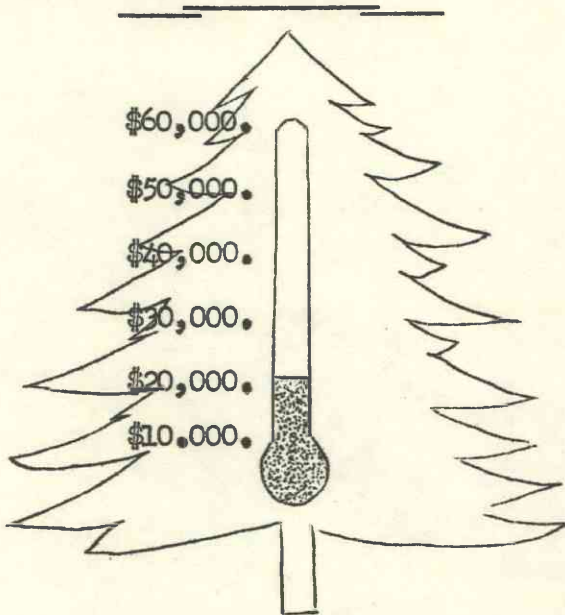

EPISCOPAL EVENTS

Mrs. Robert C. Balfour, Jr., of Thomasville, Georgia, will be the guest organist at the Church of the Incarnation at the 11 o'clock service this Sunday. Guest soloist will be Mrs. Robert C. Balfour III, also of Thomasville, who will sing "Suffer the Little Children," by Hausman, at the Offertory.

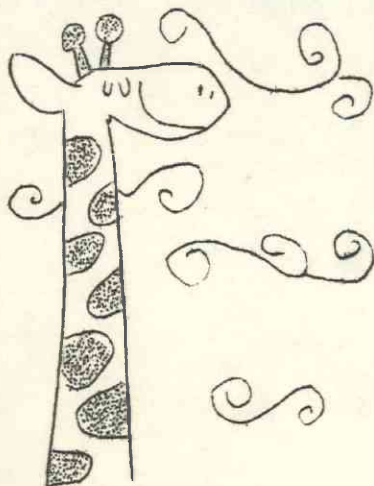

The Vestry of the parish will meet in the Fellowship Hall on Friday, August 3, at 8 o'clock.

HOME TOURS

Tours of some of the outstanding and lovely homes and views of the Highlands area are made each Friday. Mrs. Thomas Crumpler is in charge of these worthwhile tours. Complete information about and reservation for the home tours may be obtained from Mrs. Crumpler by telephoning Highlands 4921. The tours are for the benefit of the Church of the Incarnation.
