PRESBYTERIAN HAY RIDE SUCCESS

With approximately 86 young people attending, the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship Hay Ride was a grand success. Two trucks, loaded with riders, left the Presbyterian Church and went down through Horse Cove, White Side Cove, to Cashiers, and back to Highlands. Refreshments were served in the Recreation room of the Church immediately following the return of the trucks.

The PYF wishes to express their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mehder, whose help in making the Ride possible was most valuable; Mr. C. Billingsley and Mr. Neville Bryson, who donated the use of their trucks; and Mr. Frank Crane, who provided the hay.

With the money cleared from the Ride and money already on hand, the PYF will be able to purchase 35 new hymn books for the Presbyterian Church. When the books arrive, Doyle Calloway, newly elected President, will present one on behalf of the PYF to Mr. Sidney McCarty, Clerk of the Session, at the 11 o'clock worship service.
