Scaly Mountain Country Store Opens

A new gift shop in our community is known as the Scaly Mountain Country Store. Located in the old Scaly Mountain Post Office, the old brick building is 8 minutes from Highlands on the Dillard Road. It is a unique and uncluttered arrangement of unusual gifts, most of which were hand made by local craftsmen. Included is a large selection of handcrafted wooden table lamps with hand made shades, many decorated by Miss Lucy. Lamps of local and tropical hard woods, such as dogwood, laurel, chestnut, locust, holly, pecan, teakwood, and others, are made so that no two are alike. There are hand made coffee tables and benches of cherry and applewood.

Outstanding are Miss Lucy's hand painted sweaters and novelty hats, which are wonderful for travel as they are non-chushable and easy to pack.

The Country Store sells Carolina Country style hams that are sold with a money-back guarantee. A line of native-produced red raspberries, wild strawberry jam, as well as tropical caranbola kumquat and calamonden preserves, are available.

The early American line of hand made scented candles and soap---made in North Carolina---is a best seller, according to Miss Lucy. (CON'D ON PAGE 11)

EPISCOPAL NEWS

Friends of the congregation are reminded of the Annual Re-Sale, scheduled for early October. Articles intended for this Sale can be left at any time at the Magruder and O'Brien Office or will be picked up by request.

The Vestry of the Parish meets tomorrow night (Friday), August 3, at 8 o'clock in the Fellowship Hall.

Next Thursday afternoon, August 9, the Episcopal Churchwomen will meet at 3 o'clock for Evening Prayer, a business session, and a talk by the rector on the subject of "Liturgical Prayer." A social hour, in the Hall, will conclude the meeting.

The Rev. Richard Maholm, of St. Christopher's Church on Key Biscayne, Florida, will assist the rector at the 11 o'clock Celebration of the Holy Eucharist this Sunday. Fr. Maholm is spending the month of August at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Flowellyn Miller Big Bear Pen Mountain.

TALLEY IS NEW POLICEMAN

Mr. Gordon Talley has been made the new part-time police officer for the Town of Highlands. The announcement was made Monday. He will assist Chief of Police Clin Dryman in his duties as law officer.

ANNOUNCEMENT

It has been announced that children's tickets to the Square Dance Festival (tonight) August 2 will sell for 50¢, and that these tickets will not have door prize privileges. The tickets may be purchased at the box office on Main Street in front of the Chamber of Commerce.
