"COMMUNIST TARGET, YOUTH!"

The moving picture, "Communist Target, Youth," will be shown at the First Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening, August 8th, at 7:45 o'clock. The film is being made available through the Asheville office of Representative Roy Taylor, U. S. House of Representatives.

Rev. Dan McCall, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, has extended an open invitation to the people of the Highlands community to attend the service and witness the film. "We want to share this important picture with all the young people of the area," said Rev. McCall. "According to report of a spokesman of Representative Taylor's office, 'Communist Target, Youth' carries a message of timely importance for all American citizens."

The film will be shown in conjunction with a brief worship service beginning promptly at 7:45 p.m. on August 8th.

PRICE TO ENTER MINISTRY

Mr. Paul Price was a visitor here on Tuesday. Paul plans to enter the Methodist ministry when he has completed his studies at the Emory University School of Theology in Atlanta, Ga. He spent last year there, but will teach mathematics and social studies in Franklin High this year. Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Price, now of Franklin, N. C.

EPISCOPAL SILVER TEA

Advance notice is given of the Annual Silver Tea for the Episcopal Church of Highlands, which will be held this year on the afternoon of Sunday, August 19, from 4 until 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wax, on the grounds of Camp Highlander, four miles out of town on the Dillard Road. Transportation form the parking area at the Riding Ring to the top of the mountain, from which vantage point the views of Blue Valley are truly spectacular, will be provided to any desiring it.

BOY SCOUTS HELP AT BAZAAR

The local Boy Scout Troop help with the Annual Hospital Bazaar by moving tables from the Episcopal Church to the Methodist Church and setting them up. The Colonial Shop donated the use of a truck.

The Scouts meet on Saturday afternoons at 2:00 and are required to be in uniform for the meeting. Visiting Scouts are invited to attend the meetings.

Walt Disney's "Nikki" which plays at the Galax Theatre Saturday, Aug. 7, will also feature "Niok", the story of a baby elephant and an Indo-Chinese boy. This picture is sponsored by the Junior Class of Highlands High School.
