meeting Cherie (Kathleen Lewis) in a Kansas City night club, decides he will make her his wife. Cherie, having decided otherwise, leaves Kansas City by bus, not knowing that Bo and his friend, Virgil (Mike McGehee) are also on the bus. A snow storm leaves these three and other passengers stranded in Grace's Diner. It is here that the action of the play takes place, with Grace (Guerry Matthews) the somewhat bitter but kind proprietress of the diner; Elma (Mariea Sibley) her innocent young assistant; Will (Ronald Harper) the town sherriff, Carl (Phillip Egeler) the bus driver, in pursuit of Grace, and Dr. Lyman (Mark Duffy) an ex-professor and present inebriant who does a good deal to further Elma's education.

This skillfully congealed production is directed by Morton Lewis who became a resident member of this theatre last summer and has returned this year as assistant director. The set is executed by Mr. Fred C. Allen, Managing Director of the HCT.
