McCALL CHILD LOST

Little Daniel McCall, aged 2, son of Rev. and Mrs. G. Dan McCall, was lost last Thursday evening. Daniel had been playing out in the yard during the afternoon. Around 6:20, his parents, checked how he was getting along, missed him, and began looking in the yard, up and down the street, and around the block. Having no results from the search, they phoned the police. The fire siren was sounded and approximately 50 people came to help look for the little boy. Mr. W. A. Emerson soon found him behind a neighbor's yard where weeds and grass had grown very tall, causing Daniel to lose his way.

Rev. and Mrs. McCall were greatly relieved to have him found, and expressed their gratitude to the many people for their help and concern.
