op of Western North Carolina, will have his annual visitation and will preach at 11 a.m. on Sunday, August 26th. The Rev. Van B. Davis, Rector of St. Christopher's Church, Pensacola, Florida, will hold services in the Cashiers Church during the month of September.

HILL TO EXHIBIT PORTRAITS

An exhibit of children's portraits will be held Monday through Saturday of next week at the Carriage Wheel Gift Shop. The oil and pastel portraits will be exhibited by Aileen Ser Hill of Orlando, Fla., and Highlands. Mrs. Hill has studied at the Ringling School of Art in Sarasota, Fla., the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia, and with Mr. Robert Brackman, N. A. She has sponsored a number of one-man shows, several of which have been in Highlands, and has exhibited in the National and International shows, the Southeastern Show and the Florida Federation Shows. She has won numerous awards, and her portraits are seen in private collections throughout the United States. Mrs. Hill's exhibit is open to the public and all are cordially invited to attend---so why not make it a point to drop in and enjoy the portraits. They are as lively and have as much personality as the individual children themselves!

MASON INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Saturday at 12:45 a.m. a car, driven by Mr. James Ellis Mason, 19, of Scaly, lost control, hit a rock embankment of the right and overturned down an embankment on the left. Mr. Mason was admitted to Highlands Community Hospital with back injuries and for observation, and Miss Julian Thorn, 14, of Lafayette, La., was also admitted for observation. Other passengers in the car were William Kalher, 17, of Albany, Ga., and Miss Katherine Johnson, 14, of New Orleans, who were treated for lacerations and then released. The accident occurred on U. S. highway 64 just west of Highlands.
