MIRROR LAKE IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION
ANNOUNCES MEETING

COMMUNITY HELP ASKED IN RISING MIRROR LAKE FUND...

It was pointed out last week by a summer resident of Highlands, who does not own property in the Mirror Lake vicinity, that it was the general feeling that the community in general had not been asked to help build the new dam. This is not the impression that was meant to be given. The Mirror Lake Improvement Association would like all the possible help from everyone in the Community. It is felt that the lake is one of the attributes of the Community, and that everyone should donate to this fund with a contribution, no matter how small. Naturally, the residents and property owners in the Mirror Lake section will take it upon themselves to donate the major portion of the money, along with the generous contributions made by the local merchants, but it is hoped that other people outside of the Mirror Lake section will donate to this asset to the community. EPISCOPAL TEA IS A SUCCESS

The Annual Episcopal Silver Tea was a success this season, with a large crowd attending the event at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Wax at Camp Highlander. The day was near perfect for the Tea, with occasional showers which no one seemed to mind at all.

REV. McCALL TO ATTEND

PRESBYTERY MEETINGS

Rev. Dan McCall, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will attend the meeting of the Youth Council of Asheville Presbytery in Waynesville on Sunday afternoon. Rev. McCall serves as one of the Adult Advisors for the young people of Asheville Presbytery.

On Monday, August 27th, Rev. McCall will represent the local church at a meeting of the Council of Asheville Presbytery in Asheville. The Presbytery Council is charged with the planning and execution of stewardship programs within the Presbytery.

NATURE STUDY CLASSES AT MUSEUM END

Nature Study Classes at the Museum of Natural History officially ended today. Miss Linda Roane, who has been in charge of the classes this summer, announced that there has been approximately 100 children enrolled in these classes throughout the summer.

The Museum, itself, will officially close on August 31.
