FEEDING WILD BIRDS

ELIZABETH ROE TYSON

Have you been feeding our wild birds this summer? If so, you know that many of them have become dependent upon your bounty, and now it is time to think about what you and they are going to do for the late fall and winter. If you can continue your feeding all winter long, by all means, do so, but if you cannot do that, it will be well to stop your feeding within the next few weeks while the natural foods are plentiful.

During the fall months, our winter birds, Chickadees, Titmice, Nuthatches, Juncos, fly through the woods in small flocks hunting good places to spend the winter and a supply of food. Wild Flower and weed seeds, wild (CON'T TO PAGE 16)

OUR THANKS TO YOU

As this, our 13th issue of the 1962 season, marks the close of another year of publication for the GALAX NEWS, we would like to express our gratitude to all who have made possible another successful year.

First, to those of you who faithfully advertised, thank you, for you have made possible the publication of this newspaper. Greatly appreciated throughout the summer are all those items of news and interest, and various types of articles sent in. Especially, thank you, readers, for your continued support and interest which has kept us going and striving to do our utmost to bring the best to you.

A personal note, I might add---it has been a great pleasure and wonderful experience to work with the people of Highlands for the past five years. I feel as if I have come to know so many of you better, and I shall certainly never forget the years of sharing a "bit of Highlands" with each of you.

FINAL HCT PRODUCTION OPENS TONIGHT, AUGUST 30

The final show of the season opens tonight, Thursday, August 30, at the Highlands Community Theatre. Noel Coward's PRIVATE LIVES will run three nights ending a very successful summer season at the theatre.

Directed by Morton Lewis with a cast composed of Karen Sibley, Mark Duffy, Ann Rhodes, John David Richardson, and Ella Jayne Cabe, the show is an amusing satire that digs deep down into "our PRIVATE LIVES." The cast members, with the exception of Mrs. Sibley, are not new-comers to the Highlands stage. Karen makes her first appearance tonight as Sibyl Chase; however, the Sibley name (CON'T TO P. 21)

ROTARY DISTRICT GOVERNOR HERE SEPT. 4

Jones Y. Pharr, Jr., of Charlotte, N. C., governor of the district 767 of Rotary International, world-wide service organization, will arrive here Sept. 4 to visit the local Rotary Club, one of the 40 clubs in his district. In addition to addressing Highlands Rotarians at their meeting, he will confer with Ellish C. Magruder, President of the Rotary Club of Highlands, and other club officers on Rotary administrative matters and service activities.
