

MAIL SCHEDULE CHANGED

A change in the departure of outgoing mail time has been announced by Postmaster Bud Potts. As of September 1 the mail will leave as follows: Lake Toxaway to Asheville, Hendersonville, etc. --1:05 p.m.; Dillard--4:10 p.m. The Dillard mail is the last dispatch of the day.

EPISCOPAL EVENTS

A Parish Supper, prepared by a committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. William C. Caye, will be served tonight (Thursday, August 30) at 6:30 in the Fellowship Hall. After dinner, at approximately 7:30, the Annual Parish Meeting will be called to order in the church. Reports of all Parish organizations will be presented at this time; and a Vestry, responsible for the temporal affairs of the Parish during the coming year, will be elected. Because of the nature of this meeting, at which it is hoped the entire Parish will be present, no stated charge is being made for the dinner. Opportunity will be provided to contribute toward its cost.

Friends of the congregation are reminded of the annual re-sale, scheduled for early October. Articles intended for this sale can be brought at any time to the office of Magruder & O'Brien, or will be picked up at request.

Information about, and reservations for, the Home Tours can be had by telephoning Mrs. Thomas B. Crumpler at 4921.

I T E M

Mr. Ellison Capers Magruder, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., left Saturday after helping his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lahman, of Tallahassee, Fla., close their house for the summer. Mr. Magruder, who was a Lt. JG in the Navy Reserve stationed in the Pentagon, will enter medical school at Emory University.

"AIRBORNE"

Telling a story of courage, excitement and romance, the Diamond production, "Airborne," arrives Thursday, August 30 at the GALAX THEATRE. This action drama stars Bobby Diamond with Robert Christian, Mikel Angel and Carolyn Byrd.

"Airborne" is the searching portrayal of the characters of three recruits as they are put through the strenuous, sometimes fearful, and always severely disciplined training of Paratrooper Jump School, and the trials, tribulations and moments of truth each must face before becoming full-fledged Airborne Soldiers.

Bobby Diamond, the young star of the TV series "Fury," again demonstrates his ability and versatility in his role of Pvt. Eddie Slocum, a sincere country boy who is called upon to show whether he has the necessary courage to be a Paratrooper. Robert Christian, who has played in many TV shows, ably portrays the swaggering, cocky, rough, Pvt. Rocky Layman. Pvt. "Mouse" Talliaferro, Slocum's beatnik-type buddy, is played by Mikel Angel, star of stage and television. Making her film debut as the girl friend of Diamond's is Carolyn Byrd, a 17 year old beauty from Raleigh, North Carolina.

Filmed on location for added realism at Fort Bragg, North Carolina with the cooperation of the 82nd Airborne Division, "Airborne" is a Diamond production, written and directed by James Landis.
