THE GALAX NEWS -- 1951 - 1963

I can hardly believe this year makes the sixth summer of my working on the GALAX NEWS. I remember starting out in 1958 with so little knowledge about what I would be required to do, and less, how to do it. I wonder if that is how Mrs. Mary Summer Norman might have felt 12 years ago when she began to publish this paper? But Mary has always seemed to me a most efficient person, and it was she who started the GALAX NEWS in 1951, with, I might add, much success. Apparently, the newspaper caught the eye of other newspaper people, for, in

PREPARE FOR A BIG HOSPITAL BAZAAR -- JULY 26 - 27

This year's Hospital Bazaar may be the biggest yet! All organizations in town are taking part. The Bazaar, to be held July 26-27, will take place in the Brown's Store building. The Hospital Auxiliary will sponsor a booth with such items for sale as hand-made baby pillows, felt school satchels for children, hot pad covers, and many other attractive items. Four bake sales are being given by the Presbyterian Church; the Eastern Star will sponsor a food sale; a miscellaneous food and item booth will be the project of the Methodist Church; the Episcopal Church will sell miscellaneous articles; as last year, there will be a merchant's booth; a food booth is planned by the Baptists; the Satulah Club will

SENATOR W. FRANK FORSYTH TO BE HONORED

Senator W. Frank Forsyth, outstanding business and civic leader of western North Carolina, will receive a Citation of Merit for distinguished service from the Highlands Biological Station at its annual meeting June 30, at 4:30 p.m. in the Museum Building.

Over a period of many years, Senator Forsyth has been interested in the role of the Highlands Biological Station in the higher education picture of North Carolina, particularly in the phases of the research needed by graduate students in their pursuit of advanced degrees. He has long
