

TOWN HOUSE RESTAURANT

MAIN STREET
HIGHLANDS, N. C.
NEXT TO TOWN HOUSE MOTEL
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
Our Customers Get the Finest Foods!

"Amid the scenic Blue Ridge Mountains"

*Beautiful Location
Friendly Hospitality
Complete Relaxation*

Owned - Operated by Mr. & Mrs. George Stewart - Cashiers

(HOSPITAL BAZAAR CON'D FROM PAGE 1)

run a White Elephant booth; and the Short-off Community has given two beautiful quilts to be raffled off.

A generous gift donated by Mrs. George Asnip was lovely woolen cloth from which the Hospital Auxiliary has made stunning children's clothes--coats, dresses, skirts and blouses, bathrobes, and other things.

As there will be White Elephant goods on sale at the Bazaar, Mrs. W. C. Caye requested that anyone having nice saleable "white elephants" that could be used, please contact her.

A new "hot item" has been added this summer! Come early so as to be sure to get one! And in order to join in the fun of the whole Bazaar, plan to spend several hours shopping through the wide variety of lovely--and useful-- merchandise.

P E R S O N A L S

Mr. Victor H. Simmers of Ft. Myers, Fla. and Highlands has returned to his home on Big Bear Pen Mountain from the C. J. Harris Memorial Hospital in Slyva where he underwent surgery.

Miss Betty Holt returned home Sunday after a week in Atlanta, Ga. where she visited her cousin, Miss Jeanne Peak.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke of Augusta, Ga. have returned to their summer home on Webbmont.

Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Skinner of Horse Cove celebrated their forty-eighth wedding anniversary on Friday, June 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane, Sr. of Camden, Ala. were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. Robert DuPree.

"SON OF FLUBBER"

One of the funniest comedies to come out of Hollywood in many a day is Walt Disney's newest laugh-riot, "Son of Flubber," opening at the GALAX THEATRE on Saturday-Sunday, June 29-30.

Starring Fred MacMurry, Nancy Olson, and Keenan Wynn, it is a worthy successor to the producer's earlier comedy hit, "The Absent-Minded Professor," in which this same stellar trio combined their talents to bring off the hilarious hi-jinks.

MacMurry again plays the absent-minded Professor Brainard whose scientific experiments plunge him into all kinds of hot water. His newest discovery involves an off-shoot of an earlier phenomena, flubber (an anti-gravity substance), which he labels flubbergas. The professor not only uses it to put a football team into orbit but eventually to create a rainstorm that results in torrents of laughter.

Contributing to all the hilarity is one of the greatest assemblage of comedians ever brought together for one motion picture. Co-starred in a variety of roles are such laughmakers as Tommy Kirk, Ed Wynn, Ken Murray, Elliot Reid, William Demarest, Charlie Ruggles, Bob Sweeny, Paul Lynde, Leon Ames, Edward Andrews, Stuart Erwin, Alan Carney, James Westerfield, and Forrest Lewis, to name but a few. The attractive Joanna Moore cuts a glamorous figure as MacMurry's former girl friend who uses her feminine wiles to complicate the plot.

"Son of Flubber" is a guaranteed blues-chaser, with built-in appeal for the entire family. Robert Stevenson directs with his usual comedy flair and keeps the action moving briskly.

Bill Walsh, whose screenplay is keyed for a maximum of laughs, is also co-producer. Buena Vista releases the production.

HI-HO CHIP 'N PUTT

9 HOLE PAR 3 GOLF COURSE

BENT GRASS GREENS

OPEN DAILY: 1 PM TO 11 PM

SHADY LANE

MINIATURE GOLF COURSE

FUN FOR THE YOUNG AND OLD

OPEN DAILY: 1 PM TO 11 PM

NEXT DOOR TO HELEN'S BARN