recognized the strategic location of the Biological Station and the necessity of maintaining it for biological research in the Southern Appalachians. Senator Forsyth has encouraged the development of the station, recognizing that if it did not exist the State of North Carolina would have to establish and maintain one at considerable expense.

Senator Forsyth is executive vice-president Citizen Bank and Trust Company of Murphy, Andrews, Haysville, Robbinsville, and Sylva. He has held offices in the North Carolina Bankers Association. In his home town of Murphy, he has served as chairman of the Murphy Electric Power System, past president of the Lions Club, member board of trustees First Methodist Church. Among his county-wide offices, he has served as chairman County Democratic Executive Committee, County Infantile Pralysus Committee, County Better School Committee.

Since 1959 Senator Forsyth has served in the General Assembly of North Carolina, representing the thirty-third senatorial district.

In the current session of the Legislature, Senator Forsyth has served on some eleven committees. As chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, he has made an outstanding record and has served most capably on the Public Utilities Committee.

Among special guests invited for the ceremonies honoring Senator Forsyth are his North Carolina colleagues in the General Assembly. *****
