RANGER LAUNIUS ATTENDS RHODODENDRON FESTIVAL

Mr. Rufus Launius, Assistant Forest Ranger here in Highlands attended the annual Rhododendron Festival held on Roan Mountain Saturday. Ranger Launius reported that approximately 2,000 attended this 17th annual event and that the rhododendron was almost completely in full bloom that weekend. The Roan is the world's largest natural display of rhododendron.

Speaker for the day was Gov. Terry

Sanford, and the high point of the Festival was the coronation of the Rhododendron Queen, Brenda Lee Bost of Kannapolis, N. C. *****

HCT Presents EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL

The Highlands Community Theatre begins its 25th season with a comedy that its author, John Patrick calls a "prank" in three acts, EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL. The HCT run will begin July 10th and continue through the 13th.

Opal collects things--anything and everything--and totes them home in her little red wagon to a tumble down mansion on the edge of the municipal dump. Into her strange world come Gloria, Brandord, and Solomon, three purveyors of bogus perfume on the lam from the authorities and they find Opal's menage the perfect hideout. They decide to provide Opal with plenty of insurance and a rapid demise leaving them as beneficiaries. Attempted murder wouldn't seem to be funny but in the capable hands of John Patrick it is uproarious. Through all the shenanigans
