A LETTER FROM NORWAY

The following is a part of a letter from a friend. We thought you would like to share it with us, especially the description of the places which reminded her of Highlands.

BURGEN, NORWAY

Dear Girls,

Here we are in Norway and it hardly seems possible. After I sent Jessie's card we went to Dublin and from there flew to Edinburgh, Scotland. In several places there were great patches of rhododendron. The rhododendron in Scotland, England, and Ireland is apparently wild, but it was

HARDIN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF BIOLOGICAL STATION

In annual session on Sunday, the Board of Trustees of the Highlands Biological Station elected James W. Hardin, professor of botany, North Carolina State College, president of the corporation.

Dr. Julian P. Darlington, professor of biology at Furman University, was elected secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Dr. Elsie Quarterman, professor of biology, Vanderbilt University, was elected to the Board of Trustees to succeed the late Dr. Royal Shanks. Trustees re-elected to serve four-year terms were: Dr. L.E. Anderson, Duke University; Dr. H.R. Totten, University of North Carolina; Dr. R.J. Bailey, Duke University; Mr. Sidney Farnsworth, Memphis; Dr. Charles W. Foreman, University of the South; Miss Caroline Hall Highlands; Mr. W. D. McKee, Asheville; Dr. E.P. Odum, University of Georgia.

Re-elected vice-president of the corporation was Dr. H. J. Oosting, Duke University. Miss Caroline Hall was re-elected treasurer.

At the annual meeting of the membership, Mrs. Elizabeth Valentine was re-elected clerk of the corporation.
