THOUGHTS OF SUMMER

By a Highlands Native

The land is now grown but is yet in its youth and Summer appears in all its splendor. The Child Spring has grown and matured, reaping fruitful and sweet days. The tall mountains stand as guardian and bear on their backs the gifts of Nature, for fruits and berries are found in abundance.

The trees which some time before displayed little green leaves, now flourish in a glorious robe of summer green. The warm summer air caresses the trees, touching each leaf with its gentle breath. If you listened in the quietness of a forest grove, you, too, can hear the Tree Lullaby, sweetly whispering the same song that has been sung from the beginning of Time. To walk down a forest path and hear in the

A FOOD SALE SATURDAY

The Hospital Auxiliary is holding a FOOD SALE this Saturday, July 13 at 9:30 in the little building across the street from the Condiment Shop. Among the items to be sold will be homemade bread, rolls, banana nut bread, cakes, and cookies of all kinds, different salads, pies, and casserole dishes. Come by and purchase some of these delicious homemade goods for the special week-end "doings," or for just plain good eating.

INTERESTED IN PRECIOUS STONES??

Interested in precious, semi-precious and just lovely to look at cut stones? There are some beautiful ones in the cases begin assembled for the Hudson Library to give away on August 31st. These are all stones from this part of the country and include rubies, kyanite, beryl, sapphires, garnets, emeralds, amethysts, epidote and smoky quartz. All are gifts to the Hudson Library. The stones are in three cases...case 1, case 2 and case 3. For display purposes these three cases have been put into one large case. On August 31st, there will be three consecutive drawings of the numbered donation-cards for cases 1, 2, and 3 in order given.

There is a way to turn dollar bills into numbered donation-cards. Each card entitles the holder to one chance. Take your dollar bills to any (CON'D TO PAGE 15)

EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL...

A "SMASH HIT" WED.

The Highlands Community Theatre opened last night with the smash comedy hit, EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL. The play was written by John Patrick, who kept the audience laughing in the aisles last season with TEAHOUSE OF THE AUGUST MOON. Likewise, the same happened last night when the audience, who thought it couldn't be done again, had the "old school hill" rocking with laughter.

Due to the tremendous demand for tickets, the theatre box office strongly urges that reservations be made as quickly as possible. Tickets are still available for the remaining performances with the better choice on the closing nights. Reservations may be made by calling the theatre, 4870, or by stopping at the downtown box office located in the old Highlander Restaurant building next to the post office.

EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL stars Mrs. Mary Fitshugh, who has appeared as Opal before in a production in (CON'T TO PAGE 18)
