A preview audience was invited to the final dress rehearsal on Monday night and received the show enthusiastically, as did the packed audiences on succeeding nights. Home-town Highlander Collin Wilcox, who has risen to acclaim in the big lights after her recent success in the Award-Winning TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD, heads the cast. She appeared here several years ago in the FOUR POSTER and has been working in television, stage and screen for several years. Collin and her actor-husband, Geoffrey Horne, are vacationing in Highlands following the closing of the highly praised "Strange Interlude" which both co-starred in on Broadway. It was following the closing performance of the Actor's Studio Production that they were married on stage.

Geoffrey, who has performed in numerous T. V. shows, will be remembered more for his movie work which includes: BRIDGE ON THE RIVER KWAI, BONJOUR TRISTESSE, TEMPEST, and his latest, JOSEPH AND HIS

"PAPA'S DELICATE CONDITION"

If there was ever a motion picture that the families of America will love and clasp to their hearts, it is the Technicolor "Papa's Delicate Condition," which plays at the GALAX THEATRE Tuesday, July 30th.

Starring Jackie Gleason and Glynis Johns, with Laurel Goodwin, Charlie Ruggles and little Linda Bruhl, this motion picture is adapted from the best selling book of the same title. Set in Grangeville, Texas in the early years of this century, "Papa's Delicate Condition" tells the humorous, heartwarming story of the Griffith family---whose members include: Papa, Mama, Augusta, Corinne, and Grandfather Ghio, who is mayor of Texarkana, Texas.

Jackie Gleason is ideal for the role of Papa. He breathes life and believability into the robust, flamboyant character who tries to make everybody happy, but succeeds only in alienating his family.

Glynis Johns, as Mama, enacts her role with warmth, understanding, and Christian righteousness.

Paramount's screen discovery, Laurel Goodwin, portrays Augusta, the oldest daughter who continually finds fault with her papa.

In a manner reminiscent of Shirley Temple, seven--year-old Linda Bruhl plays Corinne, and audiences throughout the world should fall in love with her. She is charming, adorable, and can act surprisingly well for a child her age.
