

(THE SNOWS WILL COME CON'D FROM PAGE 19) enjoy hitting the miles of crystal clear, safe ice on Mirror Lake or Lake Sequoyah. And more than anything else, you never forget the warmth from the roaring campfires along the banks.

Yes, the snows will come and life will go on much the same as it always has in the past. Highlanders will always be what they are. . . true sons and daughters of the land they love and if you won't stay with them this winter, they know that they will see you in the spring. How do they know? Call it instinct if you wish, but I feel sure that whatever it is that holds Highlanders here also brings you back. See You in June!

"PERIOD OF ADJUSTMENT"

Tony Franciosa, Jane Fonda, and Jim Hutton form the laugh triumvirate of "Period of Adjustment," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's screen version of Tennessee Williams' big stage his and his finest comedy, which plays at the GALAX THEATRE on Wednesday, July 31.

This story of the trials and tribulations of a pair of newlyweds whose disillusionment with married life begins even before the honeymoon is over has all the raciness of Tennessee Williams' popular works, but this time the famous playwright has mixed his tongue-in-cheek barbs with touches of tenderness and sympathy, all of which add up to a delightful whole.

The pert and attractive Miss Fonda plays Isabel, the nurse in a V. A. hospital who cures patient George Haverstick (Jim Hutton) just in time to marry him. But the submissive George of the hospital bed is far from the domineering and grumpy husband who after a rainstorm lands Isabel soaking wet in a dirty and depressing motel and whose idea of an ideal honeymoon supper is a hamburger in a roadside joint.

Quarrels and recriminations lead George to look up his old Korean war buddy, Ralph (Tony Franciosa), who was married the boss's daughter, and from whom he hopes to get a few tips on What Makes Marriage Work. But Ralph's own marital status with Dortha, who is aware that he married her only to further his business career, is approaching the divorce stage, and he could use a few tips for himself.

What happens when these four disillusioned people get together and thresh out their respective dilemmas makes for a picture which, while it has plenty of laughs in situations and dialogue, also throws a sympathetic light on the need for a period of adjustment when the problems of married life seem insurmountable.
