The 400th Anniversary of Shakespeare's Birth - by Ralph M. Sargent, Professor of English, Haverford College

It was 400 years ago this year that William Shakespeare was born in the little English country town of Stratford-on-Avon. Although he went to the city of London to write plays about the urbane and the mighty of the world, he never forgot the life and scenes of his boyhood. From first to last, his plays are enriched with references to small-town streets and events, to household chores and friendly neighbors, to fishing and swimming, (CON'D ON PAGE 10)

PRESBYTERIANS BEGIN BUILDING

Work is now under way on the new Christian Education-Church Activity Building of the First Presbyterian Church. Highlands builder, James Donald Keener had his men and equipment out on the job early Monday morning, and remarkable progress is in evidence already.

The new building is to be a two-story, brick veneer structure with approximately four thousand feet of floor space. The completely fire proof building will be located near the Fifth Street property line of the church property about mid-way between the Main Street and the rear line bounding the (CON'D ON PAGE 12)
