Highlands Post Office: A Brief History

Work is proceeding on the corner lot of Fifth and Pine Streets where the new Post Office is to be built by Clemson Lumber Company of Clemson, South Carolina. The site is cleared off and excavation is being started.

Post Master Iouis E. Potts and his staff, Mrs. Ruth Shuler, Mr. Carey Reese, and Mr. Harold Reese, are looking forward to occupying the new building about November first. The present (CON'D ON PAGE 13)

H C T OPENS TWENTY-FIFTH SEASON TO CAPACITY HOUSE WEDNESDAY

The Highlands Community Theatre opened its twenty-fifth season to a capacity house last Wednesday evening with the Brevard Music Center Sinfonietta, directed by Mr. James Yestadt.

The Highlands Community Theatre's next production will be OH DAD, POOR DAD, MCM'S HUNG YOU IN THE CLOSET AND I'M FEELING SO BAD, by Arthur Kepit, which will open July 24th for two nights and one matinee on Saturday, July 25th at 2:30. This play received rave reviews in London and was a success both on and off Broadway in New York. (CON'D ON PAGE 17)
