THE INEVITABLE COMES

BY TINA HARBISON NEWTON

Every student of universities and colleges, large or small, experiences the noticeable change in facial expressions, actions, and speech in fellow students at an inevitable time of the year---final exam time. This is the time of the semester when students begin to panic at the very idea of an exam covering half a year's study---and when professors get a strange gleam in their eyes and rub their hands warmly together like the mustashed black villain that runs (CON'D ON PAGE 16)

SPECIAL SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AUGUST 2ND-7TH

The Reverend J. McDowell Richards will preach during the "Week of Spiritual Enrichment" at the First Presbyterian Church of Highlands. Services will begin each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Richards, who is President of Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia, is well known among Presbyterians. He is a former Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and has served in various positions of leadership in the denomination.

A native of North Carolina, Dr. Richards earned the A. B. degree at Davidson College, the M. A. degree at Princeton University, the A. B. and M. A. degrees at Oxford University, and the B. D. degree at Columbia Theological Seminary.

In recognition of his splendid service to the Church and to the world Dr. Richards has been awarded the D. D. degree by Davidson College and the LL. D. degree by King College. (CON'D, PAGE 12)

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY THEATRE PRESENTS THE DEBUTONES AUG. 1st

A one-night-only performance of the Greenville choral group, the DEBUTONES, will be presented at the Highlands Community Theatre on Saturday, August 1st at 8:30 p.m. This group of fifty talented young girls has just returned from an appearance at the Worlds Fair in New York, where they also sang with Vincent Lopez at the Taft Hotel.

Led by Mrs. A. G. Barton, the Debutones have sung at the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D. C. for the past five years, and will appear this summer at the State Farm and Home Week at Clemson University on August 26th.

Tickets for this performance may be obtained starting Wednesday, July 29th by calling the box office at 4870, and down town box office sales will begin Friday, July 31st, at 10:00 a.m.
