RELIGION AND THE COURT

by Rev. E. Vance Davis

The Supreme Court has always had its attackers, but most observers agree that today's Court is the most attacked of all. Various objections are raised, some of which are that the Court is becoming too powerful, that it is changing from a judicial to a legislative body, or that its authority is extended into areas which are "off limits". The most recent controversial cases center around prayer in public schools, legislative reapportionment, and further decisions involving civil rights.

Some evidence might be cited for the changing complexion of the Supreme Court; however, it is my belief that the Court's decisions must be (CON'D ON PAGE 14)

GALAX NEWS ENDS 13TH SEASON-- OUR THANKS TO YOU

Our thirteenth year of publication of the GALAX NEWS draws to a close with this, our final issue. It seems that only a day or so ago we began this summer's publications, and now it is time to thank those who have helped make this another successful season. Our "thank you list" is a long one. . . . To our many readers, to our advertisers, to our subscribers, to those who supply us with news, to those who have written features for us, and to those who have encouraged us--to each of you--thank YOU. We have enjoyed sharing another summer with you. Soon we will be returning to school and another summer will begin to fade. One thing that will not fade, however, is the memory of the wonderful experiences gained by having worked with so many nice people. These experiences will remain with us for a long time to come--and we hope to add to them next summer. To all--visitors and residents alike--a most happy and successful year ahead from the staff of the GALAX NEWS.
