MEMORIES FROM THE HILLS

BY LAWRENCE WOOD

With interest in the July 19 opening of Macon County's newest mountaintop attraction, Gold Mountain, our minds wander back to the days when the Indians owned all of this great country of our's. Hernando de Soto entered the Cherokee country here over four hundred years ago in search of gold. It is said that he passed through what is now the Town of Highlands. If so, he was the first tourist to come to this lovely place. I feel sure he never thought of a town ever being here or in any other section of this country.

From time to time others came here to trade with the Cherokees, but many years passed before the first (CON'D, PAGE 10)

REV. DAVIS ORDAINED AND RE-APPOINTED

At the recent Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church Rev. Vance Davis was ordained and reappointed to the Highlands Methodist Church. The Conference, attended by some 1450 clerical and lay delegates, convened at Lake Junaluska June 9th through the 13th. Rev. Davis was among twenty-seven men who received ordination as elders by Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., Bishop of the Charlotte area. According to Methodist policy a minister receives two orders of ordination, deacon and elder. To be ordained deacon the minister must have been admitted on trial into an annual conference and have completed at least one fourth of his seminary training. Rev. Davis received his deacon's order in June 1962. To be ordained elder a minister must have been received into full connection in an annual conference, completed his seminary training, and served two years under the supervision of a District (CON'D, PAGE 11)
