

PEOPLE'S ALL OUT CLEARANCE SALE

LADIES DRESSES:

Juniors, Misses, Half Sizes . . . Reduced 33 1/3%

LADIES SPORTSWEAR:

Shorts, Skirts, Knee Pants . . . Reduced 33 1/3%

One Rack Ladies Skirts & Girl's Summer Dresses 1/2 Price

One table assorted children's wear 1/2 Price

PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT STORE Main Street

(HOPPER, CON'D FROM PAGE ONE)

Highlands; and three grandchildren.

Services were held at 2:30 P.M. Wednesday at Highlands Methodist Church. The Rev. Vance Davis officiated and burial was in Highlands Memorial Cemetery. Pallbearers were Earl Crunkleton, Neville Wilson, Willard Garland, Leon Potts, George Cleaveland, and Gene Houston.

Bryant Funeral Home of Franklin was in charge of arrangements.

METHODIST NEWS

The discussion hour held at 7:30 on Thursday evenings, will meet this Thursday in the church parlor. The topic for discussion will be "Morality in America."

at the Story Hour at the Hudson Library on Thursday morning, August 12th. The Forest Ranger, Mr. Bob Padgett, and his bear will be there to make the awards. All children aged 5 through 11 years are invited to this special Story Hour to meet the Ranger and his bear.

WORSHIP THROUGH MUSIC

Participants in the afternoon worship service at the Methodist Church will present a special hour of worship through music on August 15, at 5 p.m. at the Highlands Methodist Church. This service of music has been a tradition in Highlands for many years though the program was not held last year. The inter-denominational community service will feature

THE GEM SHOP Main Street

Quality Gem Cutting - Cut Stones - Finished Jewelry

The Paul McCampbells

The afternoon worship service every Sunday afternoon during the summer months will be held in Cashiers Methodist Church this Sunday at 5 o'clock.

The Commission on Stewardship and Finance will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the church parlor. A film strip on the work of the commission will be shown and plans will be drawn for the year.

Sunday services at the Methodist Church are at 10, Church School; 11, Morning Worship; and 7, Community Youth Program.

SMOKEY BEAR TO VISIT STORY HOUR AT HUDSON LIBRARY

Members of the Smokey Bear Story Hour who have completed their handbooks, color page, leaf identification, and the ABC of Smokey Bear, will be awarded their badges group singing, solos, and an interpretative reading. The public is invited to attend.

H O M E T O U R

Those going on this week's Episcopal Home Tours will visit the homes of Mrs. Anne Tait at the Ravenel Place on Sunset; the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Sargent where you will enjoy a nature walk through the arboretum; Mrs. Fred Gould's home on the Country Club; and the Satulah Mountain home of Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Sledge, where refreshments will be served. Reservations for the tour, which is from 2:30 to 5 Friday afternoon, are made by calling 3131 on FRIDAY MORNING.

THE LITTLE RED HEN KNIT SHOP The COMPLETE Knitting Shop Matching Skirt and Sweater Kits a Specialty See the revolutionary Boye Needle-master Phone 3088	F O R S A L E Shetland Ponies - Some Palominos Must Reduce Herd - Lowest Prices Phone 2392 -- Highlands <hr/> KEENER'S RADIO &amp; TV SERVICE Located next to Highlands Laundry - For PROMPT SERVICE Call 5225
---	---