

GALAX
THEATRE

SATURDAY
AUGUST 7

MATINEE AT 2:30

NIGHT AT 7:25 & 9:30

(STAGE MANAGEMENT CLASS, CON'D FROM PG. 3) free of charge for young people interested in the Theatre. By necessity enrollment was limited and all places have been filled. The young people involved will rotate assignments in all areas of production during the run of TAKE ALL MY LOVES and will be responsible for designing and setting the lighting, running sound, collecting and running properties, building costumes, rigging and shifting scenery and managing performances for the extended run of this special Shakespearean production.

VILLAGE BOUTIQUE HOLDS IMPORTANT SHOWING OF ORIGINAL PAINTINGS

The Village Boutique and Art Gallery in Cashiers is holding an important showing of the original paintings of Ricka and Nan Callan. There will be a large selection of paintings by these two artists displayed for public viewing.

Ricka has developed a new technique in her work and Nan has some very charming still life and mountain scenes of this area.

Art lovers, here's your chance to enjoy "browser's heaven"! Do stop by to view these delightful paintings.

BIRD WATCHERS TO MEET
AUGUST 12TH

On August 12th at 8:00 A. M., Mr. C. H. Ekdahl will lead a group studying the birds of the area. These field trips are open to the public and anyone wishing to go on the trip should meet at the Museum. Mr. Ekdahl is a member of the Halifax Audubon Society in Florida.

PATIENTS AT H-C HOSPITAL THIS WEEK

Patients: Stenson Neely, James Hicks, Hattie Watson, Ella Crane, W. I. Burt, Talmadge Lance, Mamie Crane, Lucy Cary, Darles Earley. Discharged were Leila Butt and John D. Mitchell.

POTTS SUPER MARKET

GRADE A HEN TURKEYS	$.49 lb.	TWIN PET DOG FOOD, 12 cans	$.89
FRESH GROUND BEEF	.39 lb.	SWIFT'S VIENNA SAUSAGE, 5 cans	.99
CIRCUS DRINKS, 46 oz. can	.29	LUSTER CREME HAIR SPRAY	.69
HUNTS' PEACH HALVES, 2½ tin	.25	DELSEY TOILET TISSUE, 2 roll pkg	.25
RED BLISS POTATOES	.09 lb.	BILTMORE ICE CREAM, half gallon	.89
INSTANT MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE		FRESH CORN, dozen	.59
14 oz.	1.59		