Mr. Phil Egeler
The Highlander Newspaper
Highlands, N. C.

Dear Mr. Egeler:

Reference is made to your item relating to the GALAX NEWS in The Highlander of July 30th.

The reference which you made to the publication laws of North Carolina relate to a newspaper qualifying for the running of legal advertising and not to the naming of a publication. We do not run legal advertising. We are not violating the law when we call our publication a newspaper. I suggest that you look up the statute and read it carefully.

Regarding our operating during the summer only I wish to point out that we are not alone in that respect as many other businesses operate during the season only.

I wish to also remind you that the GALAX NEWS had been an established business in Highlands for six years before The Highlander began publication.

Yours truly,
Otto F. Summer
