NEWTON ACCEPTS PRINCIPALSHIP OF HIGHLANDS SCHOOL

Mr. H. Bueck, Macon County School Superintendent, announced Monday that Mr. W. C. Newton had accepted the principalship of Highlands School for the coming academic year. The vacancy occurred when Mr. Otto F. Summer, who was elected recently, resigned last week because of health reasons.

Mr. Newton came to Highlands as principal in 1942 and has been teaching in the school since that time. He stated that he hoped to find a buyer for his restaurant, the Highlander, in order to devote his full time to his teaching profession. (CON'D, PAGE 19)
