"THE ART OF LOVE"

"The Art of Love" tells a titillating tale of love and romance in the world capital of such emotion, Paris. James Garner, a writer who is never published, and Dick Van Dyke, an artist whose canvasses never sell, use a fake suicide to stir up more excitement than the art world has fostered in a long time. Their scheme sweeps into their lives pert Elke Sommer and sophisticated Angie Dickinson, plus night club proprietress Ethel Merman and a bevy of the wildest chicks a chorus line ever welcomed. What happens is sometimes wacky, and always wonderful.

Carl Reiner, popping up this time as a French defense attorney at a murder trial, scores a giant cameo hit, as do Pierre Olaf, Miiko Taka, and Jay Novello.

"The Art of Love" plays at the GALAX THEATRE on Thurs-Fri, August 12-13.
