"RIO CONCHOS"

Texas three years after the Civil War is the setting for "Rio Conchos," De Luxe Color and CinemaScope western from Twentieth Century-Fox playing at the GALAX THEATRE on Saturday, August 14. Richard Boone, Stuart Whitman and Tony Franciosa star with Wende Wagner, Warner Anderson, football star Jim Brown, and Edmond O'Brien.

The story tells of four men: Boone, Whitman, Franciosa and Brown, who are sent by the U. S. Cavalry to recover 2,000 stolen rifles. It is feared that these rifles will be sold to the Apaches who will use them to drench the Southwest in violence.

At the bottom of the plot is an ex-Confederate colonel, played by Edmond O'Brien, who is bitter about the outcome of the Civil War, and seeks to avenge Appomattox by arming the warlike Apaches and turning them loose against the United States.

Only Whitman and Brown turn out to be true soldiers. Richard Boone plays an ex-Confederate soldier who has a pathological hatred for Indians, and Tony Franciosa is a convicted murderer who participates in the mission only as an alternative to the gallows.
