MEMORIES FROM THE HILLS

LAWRENCE E. WOOD

Highlands boasts many lovely old homes, but none present a more beautiful picture of yesterday in Highlands than "Playmore," the original Ravenel home out Horse Cove way. As one enters the grounds around the house he beholds the breath-taking view of the valley. The house sits on the precipice far in from the road surrounded by lovely flowers and shrubs.

One steps from the yard upon the wide old fashioned porch and enters the large hall. To the right is the old parlor which still retains all the charm of yesteryear. Many of the (CON'D, PAGE 18)

SHAKESPEARE HELD OVER

GEOFFREY HORNE, COLLIN WILCOX,
RALPH SARGENT CONTINUE IN "TAKE ALL MY LOVES" AT COMMUNITY
THEATRE

In two unprecedented hold-over performances, Geoffrey Horne, Collin Wilcox and Dr. Ralph Sargent will continue the run of TAKE ALL MY LOVES, love scenes from the dramatic works of William Shakespeare, presented by Highlands Community Theatre for the first time anywhere in this format. Critically, TAKE ALL MY LOVES has been praised as the high point in the 26 year history of the local group which has presented such entertainment notables in the past as Edith Sommer, Larry Gates, Muriel (CON'D ON PAGE 20)

EVENTS AT THE MUSEUM

EKDAHL TO LEAD BIRD WALK

The final bird walk sponsored by the Highlands Biological Station will be conducted at 8:00 A.M., August 26. The group will meet at the Museum.

Under the leadership of Mr. C. H. Ekdahl the bird walks have been popular and very well received. Mr. Ekdahl is a member of the Halifax River Audubon Society (Florida). For many years Mr. and Mrs. Ekdahl have spent their summers in Highlands and winters in Daytona Beach.
