"THE AMOROUS ADVENTURES OF MOLL FLANDERS"

Kim Novak stars in the title role of "The Amorous Adventures of Moll Flanders," a Paramount release based on Daniel Defoe's classic novel first published in 1722. The film plays at the GALAX THEATRE on Sunday and Monday, August 29-30.

Everybody from gentle reader to the most highbrow expert agrees that Defoe's creation was a bewitching gal--if a little easy-going about morals and not too conscience-stricken when she had to "borrow" somebody else's money or valuables.

Richard Johnson portrays a dashing highwayman, who inadvertently crosses the path of flirtatious Moll Flanders, and finds his fate sealed by the magnetism of this woman.

Much of the story of Moll Flanders takes place around the manor house, Chillingham Castle, near London.

Also starring in "The Amorous Adventures of Moll Flanders" are Angela Lansbury, Vittorio De Sica, Leon McKern, Lilli Palmer and George Sanders.
