"THAT DARN CAT"

Walt Disney has had some funny pictures in the past, but his latest comedy feature, "That Darn Cat," is the funniest of them all. With stars like Hayley Mills, Dean Jones, Dorothy Provine and Roddy McDowall providing a large share of the laughs, the picture is a panic from beginning to end.

In the story, a slippery Siamese named D. C.--short for Darn Cat--picks up the only clue to a bank robbery when a kidnapped lady teller slips her wrist watch around his neck. Since D. C. can't tell the F. B. I. where he's been, they have to follow him and hope he returns to the criminals' lair.

This proves a mite more difficult than one would imagine, since cats are smaller and faster than cops, and since this particular feline is a gregarious sort whose evening rounds include raiding kitchens and garbage cans up and down alleys, swiping a neighbor's roast duck, caging handouts at a local drive-in theatre, harrassing a number of not-so-bright dogs, and disappearing under fences. Not since the days of Chester Conklin and the Keystone Kops have law enforcers been given such a run around.

It's a side-splitting belly laugh every time the cat lifts a paw. Don't miss this hilarious, funfilled movie which the whole family will enjoy. "That Darn Cat" plays at the GALAX THEATRE on Friday and Saturday, June 17 and 18.
