NEW METHODIST MINISTER

Rev. W. B. Penny, the newly appointed pastor of the Highlands Methodist Church, will arrive here on June 22nd. Rev. Penny will deliver the message at the eleven o'clock worship service on Sunday, June 26th. He has been pastor of the Acton Methodist Church, in the Asheville District.

Rev. and Mrs. Vance Davis, who have been in Highlands for two years, plan to leave on June 21st. They will visit relatives during the summer, and in September Mr. Davis will begin work on a P.H.D. degree in Ethics at Drew University in Madison, New Jersey.

Mrs. Davis has been employed as a teacher of typing and bookkeeping in Highlands High School during the past school term.

The Davises have made many friends in Highlands who will regret to see them move.

NEW SPORTING GOODS SHOP

On "Drug Store Hill", a new shop has been opened by Mr. Charles Herold of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and the shop is respectively known as "Herold's".

The shop is to be principally run by Mr. Herold's son, Dick, and his friend, Fred Fox. Dick attends Duke University, and Fred attends Miami-Dade Jr. College.

The shop carries a large variety and selection of men's and women's sportswear by Jantzen, Catalina, and many other well known names. Also featured is a very complete line of weather instruments--barometers, clock combinations, and others. Gift items of any kind can also be found, many with the nautical accent. For those on the go, and who like the water, water skis of all sizes and prices are available. And for those people whose idea of perfect recreation is an afternoon of lazy fishing, fishing boats and canoes and be acquired.

At the present time, Mr. Herold is contemplating offering fishing boats for rent on a weekly or monthly basis in the near future.
