The Drifters, a colored vocal group, hail from New York City. There are five of them and one leader, Aldul Samol. In the past year they have had eleven hit records on the Atlantic label. At the performance Tuesday, they sang such hits as "Under the Boardwalk", "Up On the Roof", "This Magic Moment" and many others.

The group went on stage at 10 p.m. when they had just returned from a concert at Western Carolina College where about 700 people attended the performance. Before and after their performance here, Buddy Tee and the Thrillers played. This band also backed them up when they were singing.

It was a very enjoyable affair which was attended by about 400 people.
