WILSON-SCHROEDERS MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Archie M. Jellen announce the marriage of their daughter, Jane, to Mr. Paul Schroeders. The ceremony took place on July 11th in Miami, Florida. The couple plan to remain in Highlands until fall, when they will return to Miami University in Miami, Florida.

Alice Inman Shop. Signing her portraits Aileen Fraser (in private life, Mrs. John R. Hill), she spends her winters in Orlando, Florida, and for 15 years has had a summer studio in Highlands.

Mrs. Hill began her art education at Ringling School of Fine Arts; then studied at the Pennsylvania Academy, and Robert Brackmen's School in Noan, Conn.

Mrs. Hill has had many one-man shows and has exhibited in a national show at the Mint Museum in Charlotte, North Carolina, an international show, the South Eastern Show in Atlanta, at Guild Hall in East Hampton, Long Island, in New York, in many Florida Federation shows, as well as in local shows in Orlando and Highlands, winning many awards. She is represented in private collections all over the country, including those collections of bank presidents, college presidents, and many V. I. P.'s. There is one in particular of Dr. William Sims Allen, President Emeritus of Stetson University, which hangs in Allen Hall at Stetson.

Most of the portraits in the coming exhibit are loaned by the owners.

EXHIBITION OF PORTRAITS BY WELL-KNOWN ARTIST BEGINNING JULY 26
