("THE FOLLY OF FRETTING, CON'T FROM P. 11) cannot be indifferent to the tragedy that in the Lord. Space is so limited that I will refer you to the eleventh chapter of the book of Hebrews for numerous examples of men who lived by faith.

Occasionally, I feel that people are inclined to think that our faith was for another age but not for ours. How gratifying it is to realize that this is not true, in the case of men such as our astronauts who have testified of their we see in our world. We find so much hate, hunger, fear, and other kinds of misery, but we can rejoice in the fact that in Christ we find a way out. Even though all men may not accept Him, for those who accept there is a cure. Our Lord had so much in His life that would have beaten most people, yet He experienced a joy that He wanted to pass on to his disciples. In John 15:11 we find His faith. Such good examples are not always given by other people to us, however, the applause or censor of men does not alter the power of God.

Verse 4 says, "Delight thyself in the Lord". The spirit of "delight" is seen in many places in Scripture and should be seen also in the life of every Christian. One of the greatest proofs of the sincerity of a person's faith is joy in his life. Certainly we words, "These things have I spoken unto you, that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full".

Verse 5 says, "Commit thy way unto the Lord". To avoid fretting, commitment is a necessity, but it need not be complete in one step. We find that we have to grow in grace and that we will find we always have far to go. That, of course, is why Christ died for us. He does expect us to grow in commitment. (CON'T ON P. 21)
