SERVICES HELD FOR HARLEY SMITH

Harley Astor Smith, 83, of the Mirror Lake section, died in a Franklin hospital Saturday night following an extended illness.

He was a lifelong resident of Macon County, a son of the late Wiley and Parthenia Hedden Smith and was a retired farmer and carpenter.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Edna McKinney Smith; three sons, Harley Jr. of Gainesville, Ga., Wiley of Demorest, Ga., and Victor Smith of Atlanta, Ga; a brother, Henry E. Smith of Baker, Ore; two sisters, Mrs. Stella Caziarc of Highlands and Miss Lula Smith of Clayton, Ga; and seven grandchildren.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Highlands Methodist Church.

The Rev. M. Penny and the Rev. Robert Dupree officiated. Burial took place in Horse Cove Cemetery. Pallbearers were Steve and Ed Potts, Curt Wilson, Robert Reese, and J. P. Batey.

The body was returned to the home and remained there 30 minutes prior to the services.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

GOVERNOR MOORE TO SPEAK AT BREVARD MUSIC CENTER

In the tradition of past North Carolina Governors, Governor Dan Moore will make his annual visit to the Brevard Music Center this weekend. For a number of years, the Brevard Music Center has celebrated Governor's Weekend, during which time the Chief Executive tours the Center'
