HARBISON-HOLT EDITORS OF GALAX NEWS

Co-Editors of the GALAX NEWS for the season of 1967 will be Miss Jessie Harbison and Miss Betty Holt.

Miss Harbison has been a member of the GALAX NEWS staff for four years. Last summer she was employed in the Gifted

Child Program at Western Carolina College where she served as a counselor. Jessie is a 1966 graduate of Western Carolina College, and has spent the past year in Great Falls, Montana teaching 6th grade in Morningside School.

Miss Betty Holt is a rising senior at Brenau Academy in Gainesville, Ga., where she was recently recognized as a member of the Honor Roll. Betty served as co-editor of the GALAX NEWS during the summer of 1966.

Miss Elizabeth Worley, who was co-editor last summer, did not find it convenient to accept employment with the GALAX NEWS this summer, but has very kindly assisted in getting this first issue completed.

YOUNG McCALL DIES IN ACCIDENT

Services for William Stephen McCall, 10-year old son of Amos Edward and Opal Bryson McCall, who died Thursday, June 8 when he accidentally discharged his father's pistol, were held Saturday, June 10, in the Blue Valley Baptist Church.

The Rev. Oliver Rice officiated. Burial was in the Clear Creek Baptist Church Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Carl Neely, Wendell and Wymer Bryson, Lewis Dendy, James Hicks and V. W. McCall.

The boy was a fifth grade student at Highlands Elementary School and was a member of the Blue Valley Baptist Church. His father is night policeman for the town of Highlands.

Surviving in addition to the parents are two brothers, James Edward and Emory Wayne McCall, both of the home, and the grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. Wiley McCall and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bryson, all of Highlands.

HOSPITAL DEDICATION SATURDAY

The Dedication of the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital will be held Saturday, June 17, at 11:00 a.m.

At 10:00 an inspection and tour of the hospital will be conducted by the Women's Auxiliary. (CON'T ON PAGE 19)
