"CAROUSEL"

"Carousel" is the most rollicking, molodic launching platform for the entertainment rocket which Cinemascope 55 ever gave evidence of becoming.

The cast was selected with matchless care, and the result is a set of matchless performances. Gordon McCrae stars as Billy, and Shirley Jones as Julie.

The film is a simple story of the carousel barker with women at his heels who falls in love with Julie, but cannot forego his wastrel ways. It tells of his careless ways until he learns he's to be a father. Then comes Jigger's tempting suggestion and the ensuing failure of the holdup, resulting in Billy fatally falling upon his own knife.

And now, when he goes back, he finds his lovely daughter, at 15, unhappy because of the father he had been. But he brings clear courage to the child, and a soft contentment to the Julie who recognizes his ethereal presence before and at the daughter's graduation.

Such inimitable songs as "June is Bustin' out all Over", "If I Loved You", and "You'll Never Walk Alone" help to make the movie a really big success.

"Carousel" plays Wednesday, July 5th, at the GALAX THEATRE. Make a date to see it now!
