"ANY WEDNESDAY" OPENS AT HCT AUGUST 3RD

"You're just suffering from your usual Thursday night fatigue, dear," spoken by Dorothy Cleves to her husband John in the second act of ANY WEDNESDAY will not hold true to this Thursday night opening performance of the Broadway hit comedy. There will be no fatigue in evidence on the Highlands Community Theatre as Thornton Round, Kathy Lord, G. Sam Sanfilippo, and Ruth Everitt bring the Highlands-Cashiers audiences three riotous acts of laughter.

ANY WEDNESDAY has only recently recently closed on Broadway and is enjoying wide acclaim as (CON'D ON PAGE 12)

SQUARE DANCE FESTIVAL AUG. 10TH

Three states will be represented by dancing teams at Highlands' sixth annual square dance festival on Thursday, August 10th. The "Shindiggers" from Lexington, Kentucky, and the "Mountain City Cloggers" from Mountain City, Georgia, will compete with teams from North Carolina, and possibly South Carolina for $200 in prize money.

According to Bob Padgett, festival chairman, prizes will be awarded separately for smooth dance teams and clogging teams this year. Judging will be by representatives of each team, using a point system to determine winners. Dance music will be provided by (CON'D ON PAGE 16)

DON WATSON DIES

Mr. Don Watson, 60, of the Mirror Lake section, died in Highlands-Cashiers Hospital at 1:15 p.m. Monday. He had suffered a heart attack a short time before.

Mr. Watson was a native of Jackson County, a son of the late William A. and Josephine Williams Watson. He was a former North Carolina Highway employee, and had been self-employed in the construction business until he retired in 1963.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Grace Wright Watson; a son, Charles W. Watson, of Edgefield, South Carolina; a daughter, Mrs. Marion W. Steelmon, of Lafayette, Georgia; a brother, Wid (CON'D CN P. 18)
